

Due to issues with sending out these documents and the accidental removal of the hyperlinks that carried the meaning of the information, I have decided to resend both out, but with everything corrected. The hyperlinks are now the actual URL and an additional section has been added. Please reread through this and of course share the information with those around you in our lodge. The original message begins here:

To keep your inboxes nice and clean, I thought that it would be a good idea to send out one email to everyone with all of the current updates. I know it's a lot, but it is important that you read the entire email so that you do not miss any important information.

Spook-O-Ree Help Requested

The lodge has been asked by camp operations director, Mack Culverhouse, to provide a good turn-out of staff volunteers for Spook-O-Ree. It is very important for the lodge to support the council's Cub Scout program and this is an excellent opportunity. The remaining Spook-O-Ree is the weekend of October 21-23. Ini-To Lodge can easily fulfill this request and provide plenty of help to these great events.

University of Scouting Help Requested

Mr. Allen Peeler is organizing the instructor corps for the upcoming University of Scouting being held on November 5th. He has asked us to poll the lodge membership to find out if there was anyone interested in teaching any of the following courses:

- How to be a Successful Song Leader
- Travel Plans/Weather & other items of Safe Scouting
- Plant Identification
- Story Telling

OA Troop Rep Program

During my term as lodge chief, the lodge will get a working OA Troop Rep Program up and running. To begin this process early, I ask that if you are a OA Troop Rep or know the one in your troop, please respond to this e-mail. If your troop currently does not have one, please say something to your scoutmaster and possibly step up into the position yourself. The OA Troop Rep is one of the first methods available for communicating to lodge members and vital to have in each troop across the council.

Share This Please

When we mass e-mail the lodge, we get a large number of bounce backs. Please make sure and share all of this information within your troops and those in Ini-To Lodge. The lodge leadership appreciates it.
